PREFACE.

The object of this sketch is to hand down to generations yet to come, a history of the managing of the Public Schools; the manner in which they have been carried forward; the customs and rules of the different Boards of Education; the trials and difficulties under which the Boards labored in getting sufficient room and means for the education of the youth of the city.

History of the Public Schools of Steubenville, Ohio, District No. 5.

The following is the earliest account on record, so far as is known, of the schools of Steubenville:

In the winter of 1816-17 there were two schools in Steubenville of the same order as our common schools, maintained by private subscription, as all schools then were, at $2.50 a scholar per quarter.

One of these schools (at which I was a pupil) was taught by Rev. James B. Finley, and continued until it was overshadowed by the well known school of Rev. Dr. C. C. Beatty.—Extract from a letter of Wm. C. Howells to Howe's History of Ohio.

The first step taken toward introducing the Public School system in Steubenville was taken in 1838.

Dr. C. C. Beatty, Dr. John Andrews and James Means constituted the first Board of Education.

The first meeting of the Board was held Oct. 1st, 1838. Dr. John Andrews Chairman.

The following resolution was passed:

That a meeting of the qualified voters of the school district of the town of Steubenville be held at the Court House, for the purpose of proposing to raise a tax to build a school house or school houses in said district.

That the Rev. C. C. Beatty be a committee to draw up and submit to said meeting a suitable plan of a school house, with an estimate of its probable cost.

Accordingly a meeting was held November 3rd at which Judge Leavitt presided. Dr. Andrews presented the following preamble and resolutions, which were adopted:

WHEREAS, This meeting is now convened in pursuance of a call by the School Directors of this School District, its object having been stated to be to levy a tax for the purchase of one or more lots of ground, and for the erection of one or more school houses thereon; and whereas, this meeting, entertaining a deep sense of the great importance of a well regulated and properly conducted system of common schools, whether viewed in their operation upon individual character, or as effecting the welfare of society and the peace, prosperity and ultimate destiny of our country; and whereas, in the opinion of this meeting, the first step necessary to elevate the character and secure the success of common schools, is to provide suitable grounds and commodious and attractive buildings for their accommodation.

Resolved, That for the purchase of two suitable lots of ground, the one north and the other south of Market street, and for the erection of two good houses thereon, this meeting do vote to levy a tax of six thousand dollars to be collected in three equal sums on or before the first day of April 1839, 1840 and 1841.

In accordance with the above resolution Dr. J. Andrews was authorized by the Board, on the 27th of November, 1838, to contract with James Gallagher for lot No. 413, in Ross' addition on North Fourth street, for $450.00; and James Means was authorized to contract with Alex. Wells for lot No. 11 and the adjoining half of lot No. 12 in Ross' addition on South Fourth street for the sum of $550.00.

January 10th 1839 at a meeting of the Board Messrs.

Andrews and Means reported that they had purchased the lots in accordance with the above instruction.

It was there on motion of Dr. Andrews resolved that two brick school houses be erected as early in the Spring as practicable, each 40 by 50 feet. Dr. Beatty was requested to make out specifications for the buildings.

Proposals were asked for the erection of two Public School buildings of the following dimensions:

Forty feet front by fifty feet back, beside the projection of pilasters. Front wall nine (9) inches with pilasters fourteen inches, and from the top of the pilasters to be all fourteen inches, making a projection between the pilasters above brick architrave, but the cornice, &c., with belfrey above, of wood, with moulding as in the plat. Base and capitals of pilasters to be of cut stone to suit. Side vestibule walls nine inches thick, but other exterior walls fourteen inches thick, except the back wall, from the upper floor, which is nine inches, divided by nine inch brick partitions, and with doors and windows as in plat. Foundation two feet of stone extending three inches above ground, and on that, in front, a range of ashler corresponding with sills of doors, and plinth of pilasters. Stone sills to all the doors below, and all the windows, and heads of doors and windows, and the upper windows in front. Cornice at sides of brick. Belfrey with open windows on each side, and zinc top and floor inside of the opening. Floors of oak, quartered, jointed and grooved, with joints sixteen inches from center. Stairs in middle vestibule with oak steps. Lower story $10\frac{1}{2}$ feet, and upper story $11\frac{1}{2}$ feet in the clear. Front door double hung, 10 feet high and 5 feet wide; other doors $3\frac{1}{2}$ feet wide and 7 feet high, except the back door, 3 feet wide and $6\frac{1}{2}$ feet high, all panelled. Windows single box frames, upper sash hung. Front, 30 lights 10x12 glass; others 24 lights, 10½, plain casing bead or edge. Wash boards 12 inches wide. All necessary hangings, locks, latches, weights, &c., to be found. To be plastered throughout, and wood work painted within and without, and, if anything is herein omitted to be mentioned necessary to finish the houses completely and in suitable style, it shall be considered as included.

The following proposals were received for building and finishing two school houses, agreeable to the foregoing specifications:

David Cable.....	proposed to complete the work for.....	$4,668
David Wilkin	" " " "	4,600
J. Doyle & Wm. Collins	" " " "	4,580
James O'Neal	" " " "	4,190
Wm. Thompson	" " " "	4,000

As Wm. Thompson's terms seem to be the most advantageous, it was on motion, resolved that they be acceded to, and that the Directors enter into contract with the said Wm. Thompson for the erection of the said school houses upon the terms proposed by him.

Up to Oct. 12th, 1839, it seems that the voters of the borough of Steubenville failed to elect directors, as provided in the 7th section of the "Act for the support and better regulation of common schools, and to create permanently the office of Superintendent, passed March 7th, 1838," therefore Adam J. Leslie, Township Superintendent of common schools for the Township of Steubenville, in accordance with the provision of the 23rd section of said act, appointed John Andrews, James Means and Chas. C. Beatty Directors for the district, to serve until the next annual election. These directors were qualified according to law. At this meeting Dr. John Andrews and James Means were appointed to contract immediately for fencing the grounds, building out houses, seating rooms, &c. It was also decided to open the south school building on Monday, the 11th day of November, 1839, and Judge Leavitt was chosen to deliver the address on the occasion. There was also notice given at this meeting that applications of teachers would be received up to November 4th.

At a meeting of the Directors Nov. 4th, the Board determined to purchase the small brick school house from school district No. 7, in Steubenville Township, for the sum of $50.00

The lot No. 412, that this school house stood on, was deeded by Jas. Ross to Brazillia Jewett, Joseph Dunlap and Thompson Hanna, the school directors of district No. 7. The amount stipulated in the deed was one dollar. When the districts were changed and the city took charge of its own schools this lot fell to the city, hence the purchase of the building from the township. This lot is now occupied by the 4th ward school building.

The compensation of teachers for the South school was fixed at the following rates, per month, school to begin the first Monday of December, 1839:

Principal in the male department,	$35.00.
Assistant " "	$20.00.
Primary "	$15.00.

The following teachers were elected:

Principal in the male department,	Tobias A. Plants.
Assistant " "	Wm. C. Wilson.
Principal in female "	Miss E. McDonald.
Primary " "	Miss Martha Judkins.

At this time the available funds for school purposes were $1,746.06, and on December 6th, 1839, the Board allowed the same compensation for the teachers of the North school as was allowed for the South, and the following persons were elected teachers for the North school building :

Principal of the male department,	John Taylor.
Assistant	“ “ Edward Woods.
First female department,	Miss Elizabeth Judkins.
Primary	“ Miss Jane Dick.

December 11th, 1839, the Board fixed the limit of pupils to 120 in the principal school, 60 in the female school, and 70 in the primary.

January 11th, 1840, John Taylor was re-employed as principal teacher in the North school, wages to commence on the 23rd of December. At this meeting Market street was fixed as the dividing line, and rules governing the schools, hours of meeting, length of term, &c., were adopted.

It seems that by Feb. 15th, 1840, there were not accommodations for all the applicants, and the Board, at this time, passed an additional rule, “that if a pupil was absent two weeks without a good excuse, his place should be filled by other waiting applicants.”

Sept. 18th, 1840, a school meeting was held, and Dr. J. Andrews, in behalf of the Board, presented the following report :

“The undersigned having acted as School Directors for the school district embraced in the corporate limits of the town of Steubenville, for the last two years, deem it due, both to those for whom they have acted, and to themselves, to submit to the meeting now assembled for the purpose of choosing their successors in office, a report of their doings, and of the principles by which they have been governed in the discharge of their official duties. We presume it is not too much to say that, whatever may be the present public opinion on the subject, until recently, free schools have proved, among us, to be almost useless so far as permanent useful results are concerned. In investigating the cause of this important fact, the circumstance, which, among many others of minor importance, presents itself to our mind as the most operative, is the fact that every free school had carried with it the belief or apprehension that it was regarded as a 'poor school;' a circumstance, which, in a free country like ours, where all stand upon a just equality, and where wealth gives to its possessors no precedence in public estimation, strikes at the root of any institution designed for the moral and intellectual improvement of the community. Our first object therefore, and, as we deem it, our first duty, was to remove this unfounded and injurious view of the intentions of free schools.

We resolved, if the public would sustain us in the attempt, to make the free schools of Steubenville equal to any other schools of similar design in the place: to place them on such a footing of character, respectability and usefulness, that any one desirous of giving his children a common English education, would be anxious to have them educated at these schools. At this time the district owned but one lot, on which there was a very inconsiderable house. To us it seemed essential to the success of our plan to provide grounds and houses suited by their situation, size, comfort and general attractive appearance, for the accommodation of the schools; and we therefore resolved to submit the question to the qualified voters of the district, whether they should vote a sufficient tax to enable us to carry out our plans, and to abandon it in despair if not sustained in this appeal.

The response was worthy of an enlightened, generous people. * * * * * * *

The total average daily attendance in the school has been 459. The branches taught in the various schools embrace the letters, spelling, reading, writing, grammar, arithmetic and geography. The Eclectic Series has been adopted, as far as practicable, as the text books for the schools. The Bible is used as a reading book, as well from a conviction of its value as perhaps the purest specimen of the Anglo Saxon tongue, as also with a view to impress the mind of our youth with the only moral and religious principles which can make them useful citizens of an enlightened republic. Of the value of the instruction imparted, we leave every parent and guardian to judge for himself, but we deem it due to the teachers to say that we regard them all as well qualified, faithful in the discharge of their duties. No one can enter the rooms without being sensible of the order and quiet that are preserved, and that our free schools are no longer scenes of confusion, idleness and insubordination. This result is due to the exertions of the teachers, and deserves the public commendation.

It is not to be supposed that the schools are the best that the district can have, but that they are as good as can be expected under the circumstances in which the district is placed, and that they may be regarded as the commencement of a new era in our free schools."

(Signed.)

JOHN ANDREWS.

JAMES MEANS.

Thus through the faithful labors of Dr. C. C. Beatty, Dr. J. Andrews and Mr. James Means a new era had indeed commenced. They had, in two years, placed the public school on a firm foundation, and even made a good beginning towards a system of graded schools.

Sept. 18th, 1840, John K. Sutherland, N. Dike and John Andrews were elected directors and were duly qualified to serve for the year.

On the 23rd of January, 1841, Mr. Wilson was transferred from the South to the North school to receive $25.00 per month instead of $20.00 as heretofore.

Mr. Taylor's pay was reduced from $35.00 to $30.00 per month.

Mr. Wood was transferred from the North to the South school as assistant teacher.

April 20th, 1841, the following teachers were appointed:

	Compensation.
Principal North school, Benj. L. Stone,	$30.00
Wm. C. Wilson, assistant N. S.	25.00
John Taylor, Principal S. S.	30.00
Edward Wood, assistant S. S.	20.00

At this meeting the Female High School was established.

Miss Norton was appointed teacher of the Female High School, North, at $20.00 per month, and Miss Lucinda Cowles was chosen to teach the same department at the South school, at the same salary.

Miss Jane Dick and Miss Elizabeth Judkins were appointed primary teachers at the North and South schools respectively, at $15.00 per month.

In 1841 the average enrollment of pupils in the district was 544; the average number in attendance, 371; average number enrolled and not in attendance, 173.

At this time there were in the town of Steubenville 685 male, and 678 female children, between the age of 4 and 21 years. Of this number it was supposed that at least 1000 were between the age of 4 and 16 years; of these less than 400 attend the Public Schools, and allowing 200 as the number attending private schools, it leaves at least 400 who attend no school whatever.

Sept. 17th, 1841, the directors petitioned the Legislature to authorize the directors of this district to limit the school to children of not less than five years, but the petition was not granted. The branches taught were reading, writing, arithmetic, geography and English grammar. John K. Sutherland, Nathaniel Dike and Jas Wilson were elected Directors.

[There are no records from April 17th, 1841, to Sept. 16th, 1842.]

According to the law, the directors in 1842 were elected for one, two, and three years. Heretofore they had been elected annually. The following persons were elected directors:

C. C. Wolcott for 1 year.

Samuel Page for 2 years.

David Cable for 3 years.

January 2d, 1843, John H. Taylor and Wm. C. Wilson were employed to teach evening school at the rate of $10.00 per month each.

On the 25th of Feb. the second story of the North school was divided by a partition running through the center to make more rooms, so as to better accommodate the schools, and two more teachers were added.

At a meeting of the Board April 6th, 1843, it chose A. J. Haile, Wm. C. Wilson, Anthony Middleworth and Jas. F. Snowden, male teachers at $25.00 per month each, and as female teachers, Margaret P. McNeice, Mary Kiddoo, Mary Orr and Julia Swartwout at $15.00 per month each. In addition to the above on the 29th of May, Gorham A. Page was added to the list of teachers at $20.00 per month, also Miss Eliza Kiddoo was employed as assistant at $11.50 per month.

The amount expended for teachers for the year ending Oct. 17th, 1843, was $1151.75, and for evening schools, $50.00.

The following teachers were elected for 1844:

North School, Wm. C. Wilson, Jas. F. Snowden, Margaret P. McNeice, Mary Orr, Margaret Allen. South school, Samuel Brown, Jeremiah Jones, Amelia Southard, Emma Kells and Julia Ann Swartwout.

For the government of the schools there were adopted the following rules:

The teachers are employed by the month, and shall hold their station during the pleasure of the directors, unless they see fit to leave, which they are at liberty to do at any time by giving two weeks' notice to the directors. The holidays shall be every Saturday afternoon and the 4th of July.

The hours of school shall be from 8 to 11½ A. M., and from 1½ to 5 P. M. Five and a half days shall constitute a week, and twenty-four days a month.

To insure punctual attendance teachers are expected to require a written excuse from parents or guardians for all absentees.

Teachers are to have the control and management of their respective schools, and shall at all times exercise a prudent, yet such firm discipline as will secure obedience, and for gross disobedience a pupil shall be dismissed from school, by and with the consent of the Directors.

Teachers shall hold parents and guardians accountable for all damage done the school house or other property belonging to the district, by their children or wards; they shall also hold their pupils accountable for misconduct on the way to or from school, or during intermission.

Teachers will be expected to attend at school rooms a reasonable time before the school opens, to prepare for, and receive the children, and to remain there a reasonable time after it closes, to see that all have left peaceably for their homes.

The attendance at school in 1844:

Number males,.....	384
“ females,.....	364
In total,.....	748

Average daily attendance 484.

Oct. 3d, 1844, the electors failed to elect directors. David Cable had resigned, and Samuel Page's time had expired. Township Clerk, Stephen W. Hill, appointed Samuel Page and Wm. McDonald as Directors, to hold their office until the next annual election.

On April 5th, 1845, the following teachers were employed:

Principal male teacher, Jas. F. Snowden.....	N. S.
“ “ “ Samuel Brown.....	S. S.
“ “ “ Wm. C. Wilson.....	N. S.
“ “ “ Henry Swindler.....	S. S.
Assistant male teachers, John A. Page.....	S. S.

Assistant “ “ Julia A. Swartwout.....	S. S.
“ “ “ Mary Orr.....	N. S.
“ “ “ Margaret Allen.....	N. S.
“ “ “ Isabella B. Butler..	S. S.

The school opened April 14th with ten teachers, and ten Public Schools—five in the North building and five in the South.

Number of pupils enrolled, 701; females 338. Average daily attendance, 483.

Nov. 1st, 1845, it was found that the school room was inadequate to accommodate all the children applying for admission, and the directors rented the school house belonging to Mr. David Powell, on Fifth street.

J. R. Halstead and Miss Powell were appointed to take charge of the school.

The directors for this year were Jas. Collier, W. B. Kerlin and David Moody.

Sept. 18th, 1846.—The schools had run continuously through the year, employing ten teachers; four males at $25.00 per month, and six females at $13.00 per month. The two schools in Powell's school house were taught for six months, making twelve schools in good running order.

The amount expended for this year to Sept. 18th, 1846, was $2232.92.

Henry Permar was duly elected a member of the Board in place of W. B. Kerlin whose time expired, but Mr. Permar failing to be qualified according to the provisions of the law, Stephen A. Hill, Township Clerk, appointed and qualified John S. Patterson to take the place of H. Permar, elect, until the next annual election.

March, 1847, the following teachers were elected:

NORTH SCHOOL HOUSE.

James F. Snowden,	Mrs. Mary Orr,
John B. Priest.	Mrs. Margaret Allen.
Miss Isabella B. Butler.

SOUTH SCHOOL HOUSE.

Samuel Brown,	Mrs. Julia A. Swartwout,
Francis Turner.	Miss Margaret C. Day.
Nancy L. Powell.

Sept. 17, 1847, pursuant to notice given, the electors of School District No. 5 met to hear the report of the directors, and to elect a new Board. The directors not being ready to report, as was their usual custom, the electors proceeded to elect directors, resulting in the election of John S. Patterson for two years to fill the vacancy, and William Collins was elected for three (3) years.

March 6th, 1850, the following teachers were elected :

April 5th, 1852, there was a departure from the long fixed sum of $25.00 per month for principal and $15.00 for assistant teachers, for in this year the principals, M. H. Urquhart and Mr. Deselms were employed at $30.00 per month, and assistants at $18.00 per month.

The directors were Thos. F. McGrew, Lewis A. Walker and Jas. S. Abrahams.

June 2d, the directors bought for the use of the schools, two sets of Pelton's outline maps at $50.00.

Feb. 11th, 1853, it was ordered, among other matters, that the directors be paid $10.00 each for their services and labor performed about the schools for the past years.

Section 17 of "An act to provide for the re-organization, supervision and maintenance of common schools," passed March 14th, 1853, made it the duty of the Board of Education to determine the studies to be pursued, and school books to be used in the several schools under their control.

Therefore it was ordained that the following should be the text books used in the common schools in the city of Steubenville, and no others would be permitted therein :

Infant School—McGuffey's Primer and Speller.

Primary School—McGuffey's Primer and 1st, 2d, and 3d readers, Mitchell's Primary Geography, and Greenleaf's Mental Arithmetic.

Grammar Schools—McGuffey's Speller and 3d, 4th and 5th reader. Pinneo's Grammar, Mitchell's Geography, Greenleaf's Arithmetic, Wilson's History of the United States, Robbins' Outline History, Ray's Algebra, Gray's Natural Philosophy, Mill's Rhetoric, Hedge's Logic, Young's Science of Government, Root's Penmanship and the Scriptures, a portion of which was to be read by the teacher in each school room, every morning.

Pursuant to notice, a meeting of the qualified voters of school district No. 5, convened at the North Public school house. Joseph Beatty was called to the chair. The object of the meeting was stated to be to elect three persons to act as a Board of Education, and other business. The polls were declared open, and on motion, there was a tax of $600.00 levied on the taxable property of District No. 5, for incidental expenses for the year.

The election resulted in the choice of Thos. F. McGrew, Jas. Abrahams and Alex. Conn.

Messrs. Conn and Abrahams being a tie vote, 43 votes each, it was, on motion, ordered that Joseph Doyle and M. H. Urquhart decide by lot, the time each be entitled to serve.

Having been so done the chair declared Thos. F. McGrew elected for 3 years, Alex. Conn for two years, and Jas. S. Abrahams for 1 year.

April 12th, 1853, the Board elect met, were qualified, and appointed Thos. F. McGrew President.

It also appointed Mr. McGrew Acting Manager of the schools at a compensation to be fixed hereafter.

The Board ordered that the President purchase two terrestrial globes, the first introduced into the schools.

May 16th, 1853, the President was ordered to purchase $21.00 worth of Calvin Cutter's First book of Anatomy, Physiology and Hygiene, and his anatomical plates.

The study of Physiology and Anatomy was at this time introduced into the schools.

August 4th, 1853, pursuant to public notice given, a meeting for the encouragement of popular education was held in the North school house. Wm. Dunlap was called to the Chair, and L. A. Walker made Secretary.

Hon. Thomas Means was then introduced, and proceeded to deliver a learned and interesting address upon the "Origin, Progress and Present Condition of Common Schools in Ohio."

After returning a vote of thanks to Hon. Thos. Means for his learned address, it was resolved that the Board of Education be instructed to call a meeting of citizens to convene at the North school building for the purpose of authorizing the erection of a school house corresponding with the wants of the city; that said house shall be arranged for a Central High School according to "An Act to provide for the re-organization, supervision and maintenance of common schools," passed March 4th, 1853.

It was then ordered that a meeting of the qualified voters of School District No. 5, be called at the Court House, Sept. 17th, 1853, to then and there authorize a tax to be levied for the sum of $8,000 for the purpose of erecting a Central High School building, in accordance with act passed March 4th, 1853.

Sept. 13th, Board met. It was ordered that the meeting called for Sept. 17th, be postponed until early in the winter, to procure plans and further estimates.

At a meeting of the Board Oct. 13th, the following rules were adopted:

That persons employed as teachers in the common school be required to attend Teachers' Institute, at least two hours each week during the session of school, and in case of a refusal to comply, no order shall be issued for his or her services, and the place be held vacant.

November 14th, 1853, the number of children in School District, No. 5, between the ages of 5 and 21 years, was 1252 white males, 1331 females; 18 colored males, 34 females, making 2635. Number of teachers and assistants, 14.

The number attending school for the session ending April 1st, 1853, was 705; average daily attendance, 442.

Those attending the session ending Oct. 1st, 1853, were, males, 369; females, 364; average daily attendance, 421.

The books used in the school at this time were:

Infant School—McGuffey's Primer and Speller.

Primary School—McGuffey's Speller, 1st, 2d and 3d Readers, Mitchell's Primary Geography and Greenleaf's Mental Arithmetic.

Grammar School—McGuffey's Speller, 3d, 4th and 5th Readers, Pinneo's Grammar, Mitchell's Geography, Greenleaf's Arithmetic, Wilson's History of the United States, Robbin's Outline History, Ray's Algebra, Gray's Natural Philosophy, Mills' Rhetoric, Hedge's Logic, Young's Science of Government, Root's Penmanship, and the Scriptures.

Amount expended for teachers' salaries for the year 1853, was $2,395.00. Average attendance, 421; estimated cost for each pupil, $5.82.

March 2d, 1854, orders were issued in favor of the Board, for services as follows: To Thos. McGrew $30.00, Jas. Abrahams $10.00, and Alex. Conn $10.00.

March 29th, 1854, Powell school house was rented at $40.00 per year for a primary school, for all children south of Market and West of Fifth Street.

June 10th, 1854, Warren J. Sage was employed as Superintendent of the Public Schools at a salary of $700.00 per year, to commence the second Monday in July.

In July, 1854, exact date not given in the minutes, a set of rules for the government of the schools, including a course of study, was presented by the Superintendent, Warren J. Sage. These rules and the course of study were adopted by the Board. By their adoption the Steubenville High School was brought into existence. The schools were divided into four departments, Primary, Secondary, Grammar and High School.

In the Primary school was to be taught the alphabet, spelling, reading in Eclectic First Reader, figures, counting, cardinal points, &c.

In the Secondary school, orthography, reading in second and third readers, arithmetic through the multiplication table, primary geography, &c.

In the Grammar school, orthography, reading in Fourth and Fifth readers, penmanship, arithmetic, geography with maps, and English grammar.

The course of study in the High School was to embrace Ancient and Modern History, Algebra, Natural Philosophy, Physiology, Astronomy, Chemistry, Geology, Trigonometry, Surveying, Book keeping, Composition, Elocution, Mental, Moral and Political Science, and the Latin and Greek languages.

October 23d, 1854, the Board ordered that the High School be opened Monday, Nov. 6th, in the lower story of Killgore's new building (now Garrett's Hall) on Market street.

The conditions for admission to the High School were, that the pupil must be able to read, write, and spell correctly; must have a complete knowledge of geography and grammar, and must be familiar with the principles of arithmetic, as far as through fractions.

After the first term, candidates were required, in addition to the above, to have attended at least one session of the Public Schools of this city. No one was admitted to the session after the first week.

The contract for seating the room was awarded to Jas. Abrahams. At this time the Board also rented the basement of the Second Presbyterian Church for a school of the second grade, under charge of Miss Leslie.

Monday, April 14th, James Turnbull was elected for three years, and Thos. Johnson to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Gallagher.

June 2d, 1862, the tax levy for prolonging the schools, was fixed at the same rate as last year, viz., one and three tenth mills.

July 8th, 1862, Mr. Joseph Buchanan was re-elected as Superintendent for the coming year.

August 1st, J. D. Slack was employed to take the enumeration, at one dollar per hundred names.

Nov. 22d, 1863, the female teachers petitioned the Board for an increase of wages. After due consideration, the Board thought it inexpedient to increase the wages, as the means for keeping up the schools for the year would not justify an increase.

Dec. 20th, Mr. Wm. J. Mills, Principal of the High School, and several of the female teachers, by petition, asked the Board for an increase of wages owing to the increase in the cost of living since the compensation was fixed.

The Board, after due consideration, increased the compensation two dollars per month to all female teachers.

Dec. 31st, 1862, the Board received a petition from the teachers of the Public Schools, asking for an increase of wages. After careful consideration, the Board decided that they had no power to change the terms of the contract agreed upon, but that the Board would, on notice, release any one of the petitioners that desired to be released.

January 26th, 1863, the President laid before the Board the petition of the teachers, asking for an increase of wages, and after careful consideration, it was unanimously agreed to increase the wages of Miss McCracken to $27.50, and the other teachers to $21.00 per month, Commencing Feb. 1st, 1863.

At a meeting of the Board Feb. 29th, Mr. W. J. Mills' compensation was increased to forty-seven dollars, to commence March 4th, 1864.

The Board now consisted of A. J. Beatty, Robert Sherrard and Daniel McCurdy.

July 23d, Teachers were elected, their salaries ranging from $29.00 to $38.00 per month.

Mr. Joseph Buchanan was engaged as Superintendent, Joseph Schofield as teacher of music, and Mr. Clark to teach the Colored School.

August 3d, 1866, Mr. Myers was engaged as teacher in the High School at $90.00 per month. [This entry is the last record made until April 11th, 1867. There are many places in the minute books where no record has been made for months at a time.]

April 11th, 1867, Wm. B. Lindsay was qualified as a member of the Board. The subject of a new school house was discussed at this meeting, and resulted in the appointment of R. Sherrard, a committee to correspond with Hezekiah Wells, of Kalamazoo, Michigan, and Mr. Lindsay to confer with F. A. Wells, of this city, to obtain their right to the grave yard on corner of South and Fourth street, adjoining the First Presbyterian Church, to be used for erecting a school house thereon. In view of the purchase of a lot and erection of a building thereon, the Board assessed six mills on the taxable property of this district.

Oct. 15th, 1867, Mr. Sherrard reported having received a quit-claim deed from Hezekiah Wells and wife, surrendering their right in the grave yard lot.

Mr. H. Wells also stated that for $40.00 (forty dollars) he could get a release from other parties who had a claim on the lot. These parties were living in Michigan and Mt. Vernon, Ohio. The money was authorized to be sent. Mr. F. A. Wells also executed a deed for the same. As the necessity of the case required a building to be erected as soon as possible, the Board contracted with Mr. Huff Parrish to deliver 2000 bushels of river sand on the grounds for building purposes, and Messrs. Heard & Blythe, architects of Cleveland, were invited to visit the grounds, and get up plans and specifications for a new school building.

March 17th, 1868, Messrs. Heard & Blythe presented plans and specifications for the new school building. The leading mechanics of the city were invited to examine the same, and render their opinion to the Board.

March 18th, the mechanics having generally examined the plans and recommended their adoption, the plans and specifications were printed in pamphlet form for the use of the Board and mechanics.

April 2d, 1868, the Board advertised for bids from contractors to erect the building.

April 13th, the proposals were received, and to A. D. Cook was awarded the excavation and building of the foundation.

June 12th, 1868 the Board levied 7 mills on the taxable property in this district, for prolonging the schools, building, and other expenses.

May 7th, 1868 the Board proceeded to open the bids for carpenter and brick work for the new building.

The carpenter work was awarded to Cyrus Massey, and the brick work to A. J. Fiekens.

Dec. 4th, Mr. A. D. Cook had finished the foundation at a cost of $10,575.24, and in accordance with the specifications the Board entered into contract with A. D. Cook for the balance of the stone work, for the sum of $3,300.

Feb. 23d, 1869, the Board contracted with George H. Priest to do the painting and glazing of the new building.

March 11th, 1869, the Board considered the request from the Board of Health in regard to vaccinating the children attending the Public Schools. After due consideration of the power conferred on the Board, it was agreed to publish the following:

“Although no case of smallpox has occurred in the city during the winter, yet as a precautionary measure, and at the request of the Board of Health, it is earnestly requested that the parents having children attending the Public Schools, see to it that their children are vaccinated.”

June 11th, 1869, the Board contracted with Ault & Hawkins to do the plastering of the new building.

Sept. 8th, Fickes & Kells presented their bill for the brick work of the new school building, amounting to $13,186.00, which was paid $8,800.00 in cash, and the balance in notes for one year, with interest.

Nov. 29th, the President was instructed to prepare a deed, executed on the part of the Board, to the Steubenville Coal & Mining Company for the coal sold said company, underlying the property belonging to the Board of Education which was purchased from Mrs. Ellen Kilgore, consideration $500.00

Dec. 2d, 1869, the President reported the above deed executed, and the money paid, which was passed to the credit of the school fund.

Joseph Schofield was employed as janitor of the new school building, and to teach music in the several schools as he may be directed, and as consideration for his services he was paid $70.00 per month.

Dec. 8th, a settlement was effected with Ault & Hawkins of $3050.00 for plastering the new school house.

January 10th, 1870, the Board settled with George H. Priest for painting and glazing the new school building; amount, $1704.70.

March 3d, there was a settlement made with Koll & Co., for the furnaces in the new school building; amount, $1415.20.

The Board issued a number of bonds, bearing 7 to 8 per cent interest, generally the latter figure, to secure money to pay for the new building.

The proceeds of sale of the old South school house were deposited to the credit of special fund.

At an election held April 11th, 1870, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the expiration of Wm. B. Lindsay's term, W. H. Wallace was elected to serve as a member of the Board for three years.

At an election held April 26th, to fill the vacancy caused by the removal from the city of Robt. Sherrard, Jr., E. F. Andrews was elected to serve for the unexpired time of one year.

May 4th, 1870, the Clerk submitted a number of reports, showing the receipts and disbursements of the Board of Education since August 31st, 1867. It was necessary to go back thus far in order to include all the disbursements on account of the new school building. It was referred to Mr. Andrews for compilation.

June 13th, 1870, the Payson, Dunton & Scribner system of Penmanship was introduced into the schools on the following terms:

"That the school be furnished free of charge with a complete set of Payson, Dunton & Scribner's Charts for such rooms as the Board may require. That the books be furnished at the net price of 12c per copy at the publishers. The publishers to furnish enough books to introduce the system, at 15c per copy from the stores here, and exchange Payson, Dunton & Scribner's books for all the Babbittsonian books now in stores here."

May 31st, pursuant to notice published by the Board of Education, the qualified voters of the school district met at the Court House and organized, by calling Mr. McGowan to the Chair, and Henry Permar to act as Secretary. The following business was transacted:

"Mr. Garrett moved that the Board be authorized to issue bonds to the amount of $40,000. After some debate the motion carried.

Mr. Joseph Means then made a motion that the School Board be authorized to levy a sufficient tax to pay off the bonds within two years, which was carried."

At a meeting of the Board June 18th, 1870, Mr. A. D. Cook presented and urged a claim of $130.00 for cutting drips in 104 window caps, at $1.25. His claim was, that this was extra work, but the old Board decided that it was part of the contract; referred their decision to the architect, who confirmed the decision of the Board, and his claim was not allowed.

June 30th, 1870. Prof. M. R. Andrews was employed as Superintendent of the Public Schools, at a salary of $1500.00 per year.

The matter of fencing the grounds at the High School, was discussed, and the Board concluded to purchase from the County Commissioners, the iron fence surrounding the Court House yard for $1200.00, and contracted with A. D. Cook to move the same and put it up around the new school house at corner of Fourth and South street, for $200.00.

August 8th, the contract for paving the side walks at the new school building, was let to Harris & Bates at 70c per yard.

The following salaries were established for the year:

Superintendent, $1700.00.; High School Principal, $1250.00.; H. S. 1st assistant, $750.00.; 2d assistant, $600.00; North Grammar and Principal of Academy Building, $750.00.; Teacher of Composition and History, $500.00.; Grammar School Principal, $450.00.; assistant $400.00.; No. 7 and 8 $400.00.; Nos. 1 to 6 inclusive, $350.00.

Sept. 1st, 1871, the Board ordered that a meeting of the citizens be held, to consider the propriety of authorizing the Board to erect a new school building north of Market street.

Sept. 20th, 1871, the time required by law, having expired since notice of a change of books was published, the Board adopted the Quackenbos Elementary History of the United States, as a text book to supersede Goodrich's, to be introduced at half rates, and the full retail price to be 75c.

Oct. 4th, 1871, E. F. Andrews resigned his place as a member of the Board. The resignation was accepted, and J. J. Gill appointed to fill the vacancy.

Oct. 11th, the committee of mechanics, consisting of A. J. Fickes, John A. Harris, V. B. Lighthizer and Parke A. Elson, who were appointed to examine the Academy Building, reported that the building was unsafe to be used as a public school house. Thereupon the Board ordered the school dismissed until suitable rooms could be obtained.

Oct. 12th, pursuant to a call, the qualified electors of School District No. 5 met in the Court House in the Cochran building to decide upon erecting a new school building.

Mr. Trainer spoke at length in favor of voting to the Board, authority to use $75,000 in the construction of a school house.

Mr. Joseph Beatty moved to adjourn, and after much talk and confusion the motion was withdrawn.

Mr. Trainer moved the Board be voted authority to use $60,000 for the erection of a building.

Mr. D. McGowan moved an amendment that the amount should not exceed $25,000.

J. H. Hawkins moved to amend that the amount be $40,000.

Mr. John H. Bristor said the vote should only be on whether the Board should build a school house or not, and the amount fixed afterwards. At this point of the proceeding Mr. Trainer accepted the amendment of Mr. Hawkins.

Then A. G. McCook offered a substitute for the whole proceeding; that the whole question be remitted to an election of the people, at such time as the Board should decide upon.

Again a motion to adjourn was made, and lost.

Mr. McCook again offered his substitute, and extended it by making $50,000 for house, grounds and furniture, which was carried.

Oct. 13th, the Superintendent was instructed to rent the basement in the African Church, at $8.00 per month, and two rooms in the Disciples' Church, at $20.00 per month.

The contract for the carpenter work was awarded to W. L. Grafton; plastering to Wm. C. Myers for $75.00; painting to Taggart and Boyd for $50.00; brick work to Fickes & Kells for $345.00; the whole amounting to $928.00.

July 19th, the Board purchased from George H. Grant & Co., of Richmond, Ind., one hundred and twenty No. 2 Rustic seats, at $3.63 each, and ten backs, at $2.50 per seat.

Feb. 7th, 1876, the following committees were appointed to visit the City Public Schools at their earliest convenience, and report to the Board, in writing, as to the condition of the schools, in order, deportment, advancement, method and spirit :

Messrs. J. S. Maxwell, John Orr, David Johnson, Sr., for the Fourth Ward school, including the Colored.

Rev. Thos. D Pitts, Joseph Beatty, Sr., and Parker A. Elson, for South school.

Rev. Gruber and Jacob Fisher for Fisher's school.

Edward Canby and Henry Opperman for Rolling Mill school.

Lewis Armstrong and C. C. Jordon for Jacksonville.

The committees visited the schools, and from the North school they proceeded from room to room and reported the schools to be, in their opinion, ably and efficiently managed: the teachers dignified, diligent and faithful, and the scholars under the best discipline, yielding willing obedience to wholesome restraint—highly creditable to themselves and the management.

The best of order existed in all the schools visited by them, and they deemed especially worthy of note, the feeling of mutual love and confidence existing between teachers and pupils in all of the rooms.

The large daily attendance and anxiety of all scholars to be prompt, added to the actual love of school on the part of pupils (a love as marked with the youngest as in others older) was worthy of the highest praise, and fully shows the superiority of the new order of things, as compared with their school days.

The care taken in ventilating the school rooms during recess, was deemed worthy of note and approval.

The progress made by the scholars gave them much gratification—many showing a degree of advancement that would do credit to their seniors.

Speaking of method—the improvement made here was very astonishing. With the instruction in arithmetic, pronunciation and geography, they were greatly pleased. The maps and other drawings were especially interesting to them.

But they regretted to give it as their opinion, that the method of teaching writing in the school had not kept pace with the other branches, and recommended that the matter be closely looked after by the Superintendent and teachers.

They could not but express their pleasure and satisfaction at the success attained by many of the pupils in the knowledge of music; and they heartily endorsed the Board of Education and Superintendent in the introduction of this very pleasing and refining branch of study into our Public schools.

On visiting the Colored school they found the same degree of proficiency as in the other schools.

They recommended that committees like theirs, numbering four or more for each district, be appointed three times each scholastic year. By the frequency of such visits, the scholars would cease to be nonplussed on such occasions, and much encouragement be given to both teachers and pupils.

April 8th, 1876, Dr. H. W. Nelson had been re-elected a member of the Board, and being absent in the State of Iowa, was notified by the Clerk, of his election. He thereupon presented himself to the proper authority in the city of Keokuk, and took the oath of office. On the 10th day of April the Clerk received a copy of the oath of office, and on the 17th the Board reorganized.

June 5th, the pupils of the High School petitioned the Board to issue tickets for admittance to commencement, Friday night, June 16th, 1876, which seems to be the first tickets issued for the school commencements.

Mr. Jas. Hammond was employed as teacher of the Colored High School, at $600.00 per year.

Miss Sutherland was elected as first assistant in High School, salary $750.00; Annie N. Gilmore, 2d assistant, salary $600.00; Anna Monerief, 3d assistant, salary $450.00.

Miss Semple was employed as teacher at $400.00 per year.

Prof. O. B. Kerlin was employed as teacher of Music in the schools, at $500.00 per year.

This year the Board assessed five mills on the taxable property for school purposes.

D. S. Bruce was continued as teacher in the Colored school.

June 16th, 1876. J. M. Fisher has, by articles of agreement and Warantee Deed signed to the Board of Education, the right to pass and repass in going to and returning from the school premises, over all that certain strip of land lying on the North side of the lot conveyed by said Jacob M. Fisher and wife to the Methodist Episcopal church, by Deed dated July 19th, 1870, and recorded in the Recorder's office of this county, in record of Deeds R. No. 2. at page 458 and 486, and between said lot and the land formerly owned by John H. Miller, being 56 feet in length, and about 30 feet in width, said right to be exercised and enjoyed in common with the Methodist Episcopal church aforesaid. See Deed, recorded for the aforesaid premises.

June 19th, 1876, the Board of Education received an invitation for the schools to participate in the Centennial Celebration on July 4th, 1876, which the Board accepted.

The Commencement exercises of the schools were held in Gray and Garrett's Hall.

July 3d, the Board of Education ordered that flags be bought for the High School building, and North Fourth Street building, to be unfurled on the morning of the 4th of July, 1876, and all other patriotic holidays.

Sept. 9th, 1876, the Board held a special meeting, for the purpose of taking suitable action in regard to the death of Andrew J. Fickes, who had been a member of the Board for four years.

The Board passed resolutions commendatory of his usefulness and efficiency as a member of the Board, and his good and Christian acts should always hold a high place in the remembrance of the Board.

The schools were closed on the day of the funeral, and the Board attended in a body.

The flags were displayed at half mast from the North and South School buildings, and the bells were rung a half hour before the funeral, and tolled during the moving of the funeral cortege.

Sept. 18th, George G. Bright was employed as a teacher of German in the schools, at a salary of $350.00 per year.

Oct. 2d, M. L. Miller was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of A. J. Fickes. Oct. 5th, Mr. Miller was duly qualified as a member of the Board.

Dec. 4th, C. S. Slocum was engaged to teach writing in the schools for two months, at a salary of one hundred and twenty-five dollars per month.

March 13th, 1877, the Board met in special session, to take suitable action on the death of Mr. Jacob Coble, a member of the Board, and passed the following Resolution:

Resolved, That by the death of Mr. Coble, the Board of Education of the City of Stenbenville has sustained a great loss, and the community a tried and incorruptible public servant, and that the Board attend the funeral of the deceased.

May 21st, it was found the school room was inadequate to supply the demand of the pupils of school age.

Hence the Board asked the privilege of building a new house, at an expense of $30,000.00, including furniture.

An election was ordered to be held June 2d, 1877, and resulted in the following vote:

Votes cast 1070—378 for a new building, and 685 against it, leaving a majority of 307 against a new building.

June 4th, Mr. C. H. Spaulding offered a resolution discontinuing the teaching of German in the Public school the coming year, unless petitioned for, according to law.

Mr. Nelson and Spaulding voted yea, and Hall, Traut, Blackburn and Patterson voting nay; the resolution was lost.

June 13th, Mr. Blackburn moved a reconsideration of the motion, seconded by Mr. Traut.

The motion was reconsidered, and Mr. Spaulding renewed his motion which was carried; yeas, Messrs. Blackburn, Hall, Nelson, Spaulding and Traut; nays, J. S. Patterson.

June 18th, it was ordered that an addition be built to the west end of the Rolling Mill school building, 25 by 47 feet, and in pursuance to notice given, the following bids were received:

Frank D. Thompson.....	$818 00
Jos. D. Porter.....	674 80
B. L. Gitting.....	635 00
H. & J. Thompson.....	720 00
John Attig.....	660 00
W. H. Wey.....	800 00

July 2d, 1877, a petition containing 150 names was presented to the Board, requesting that German be taught in the Public schools. On motion the petition was laid on the table, and on the 16th was taken up and referred to a committee of two, Messrs. Traut and Nelson, to report thereon.

August 6th, 1877, the committee on German petition reported that they found 102 names appended are bona-fide freeholders, and that said freeholders represent 47 children whom they wish instructed in the German language. Signed Nelson and Traut. No further action was taken.

It would seem that Mr. Bright was continued as teacher of German, although there is no record of such action until May 6th, 1878, when the Board settled with Mr. Bright in full for services as German teacher.

Mr. Traut resigned his position as member of the Board, to take effect April 1st, 1878. The members of the Board, at this time, were elected for three years.

June 3d, 1878, Dr. Nelson offered a resolution leaving off the following studies in the High School: Greek, Latin, Bookkeeping, Trigonometry and the seventh and eighth books of Geometry, and after considerable discussion the matter was laid on the table for further consideration.

June 17th, Harper's Geography was introduced into the schools.

July 1st, the Board passed a rule preventing the collection of money from the children for any purpose whatever.

July 1st, 1878, Dr. Nelson's resolution of June 3d, was taken up, and items voted upon separately, and was lost.

August 19th, 1878, a petition was presented to the Board, asking that German be taught in the Public Schools. The petition was referred back for correction, to conform with the law.

Sept. 2d, the petition was again presented to the Board, and was referred to the committee on Teachers and Discipline, and if they found the petition according to law, to provide a teacher accordingly.

Oct. 21st, Mr. M. R. Andrews, Superintendent, made a very elaborate report, giving the condition of the Public Schools, and the vagrant children who swarm the streets with no particular object in view as relates to their future education and occupation.

March 3rd, 1879, Mr. J. M. Barclay was directed to prepare a map of School District No. 5, at a cost of $30.00.

April 1st, Mr. M. R. Andrews tendered his resignation as Superintendent of the Public Schools, which was accepted, and appropriate resolutions passed, congratulating Marietta College on having procured the services and citizenship of a man, who, as Superintendent of our Public Schools for a period of nine years, gave to this community perfect satisfaction in his position; a man whose influence in the community was of the highest order.

At this time there was a night school sustained by the Board at an expense of $400.00 per year.

May 19th, 1879, the Board elected Mr. Henry N. Mertz Superintendent of our Public Schools, at a salary of $1,500.

Mr. Mertz was notified of his election, and on May 22d, notified the Board that he would accept the position at the salary named, for the school year of 1879 and 1880.

The following was the corps of teachers when Mr. Mertz took charge of the schools:

July 7th, 1879, Supt. H. N. Mertz was elected a member of the City Board of School Examiners, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Supt. M. R. Andrews.

The following resolution was adopted by the Board, July 21st, 1879:

Resolved, That the Eclectic Educational Series, namely, McGuffey's readers and spellers, White's Arithmetic, Harvey's Grammar, Eclectic Geographies, Eclectic copy books, be adopted for uniform use in the schools of the city, for three years, in pursuance of Sec. 52 of the School Laws.

Van Antwerp, Bragg & Co., were to furnish the series at reduced prices, and guarantee no advance in price, but the benefit of a decline, if there be any.

August 4th, 1879, the Board purchased a lot adjoining the Rolling Mill school property on the north, from Mr. Aldridge for the sum of $500.00. A mortgage on the property was cancelled and lifted, and a clear deed given to the Board of Education.

Oct. 6th, F. S. Fry, who had been previously appointed to take the annual school census, made his report to the Board of Education, showing the number of youth in the city between the age of 6 and 21 years, to be 5346.

Nov. 3d, Webster's New Academic Dictionary was purchased, one copy for each room not already supplied.

January 5th, 1880, the subject of a night school was taken up by the Board, and after some discussion the Superintendent was instructed to employ a teacher, and commence the school at once.

Feb. 2d, 1880, Mr. A. B. Reamer, agent for C. E. Dickinson & Co., was present at a meeting of the Board, in the interest of the Mac Vicar Tellurian Globes, and having the globes on exhibition, the members of the Board decided to purchase one, at a cost of $50.00, for use in the South school building.

Feb. 16th, Superintendent Mertz submitted a report of the schools for the month of January, 1880, and for the term beginning Sept. 1st, 1879, and ending January 30th, 1880, showing the large number of pupils perfect in attendance, neither absent nor tardy, during January, to be 1035, out of an enrollment of 1872, and asked that a Roll of Honor, of all such, be printed, and a copy be given to each pupil whose name appears on the roll—and requested that proper blanks be printed for monthly reports to all parents, believing that such reports would have a good effect on all pupils, who need some such stimulant to study. The report was duly received, and the recommendations adopted, and 2500 blank reports ordered printed.

Feb. 24th, Miss Dessa Moreland resigned her position as teacher in the Public Schools, and Miss Anna Moore was elected to fill the vacancy.

Miss Lucy E. Curfinan was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by Miss Moore's promotion.

Miss Carrie Wolcott, Miss Lizzie P. Beck and Miss Jossie Hammond were named as Supernumerary Teachers, at a salary of $20.00 per month, and be assigned positions by the Superintendent, as needed in the schools.

March 15th, Miss Anna D. Dohrman resigned her position as teacher, and Miss Virginia F. Saunders was appointed to fill the vacancy, and Miss Lou Draper was transferred to fill the vacancy caused by the transfer of Miss Saunders, and Miss Lizzie P. Beck, Supernumerary, was elected as teacher of Assistant C Primary, South, in the room vacated by Miss Draper, at a salary of $25.00 per month, and Miss Carrie Dohrman was selected as a Supernumerary, at $20.00 per month, to supply by assignment of the Superintendent.

April 19th, 1880, the Superintendent reported to the Board that the night school was closed on Friday, April 16th, the attendance having fallen so low as not to justify its continuance.

May 3d, 1880, Miss Lou Draper resigned her position as teacher, and Miss Carrie Wolcott Supernumerary, was elected to take the place of Miss Draper, and Miss Nettie Leech selected as Supernumerary in place of Miss Carrie Wolcott, at a salary of $20.00 per month.

The following appointments were made for the school year of 1880 and 1881:

Nov. 6th, the Board passed appropriate resolutions on the death of John S. Patterson, a member of the Board, and ordered that the flags be displayed at half mast, the schools dismissed, and the Board attend the funeral in a body.

Nov. 15th, the Board established a night school, to commence the first Monday in December, and to be discontinued when the average weekly attendance fell below twenty.

Peter Perrine was elected teacher of night school, at twenty-five dollars per month, and allowed two dollars per month for janitor's fees.

Feb. 7th, 1881, the Board appointed a committee to investigate the workings of the Literary Society of the High School. On the 21st the committee reported, and recommended the continuance of the Society under proper regulations. The committee was continued, to report proper rules for the regulation of the society, and on March 7th, reported the following:

A Literary Society may hold meetings in the High School room on Friday evenings, under the supervision of a Board of Control, consisting of the Superintendent and teachers of the High School.

Feb. 22d, the Superintendent reported to the Board the closing of the night school for want of attendance.

March 21st, Mr. Wilfing was employed to teach penmanship in the Public Schools at $38.57 per month, for two hours daily, and one hour weekly to instruct the teachers.

April 18th, 1881, Messrs. Peters, McLaughlin and Blackburn were appointed to draft rules governing the School Library. On May 2d the committee reported rules, as published in the annual report of the Board of Education.

June 20th, Judge Robert Martin was re-elected School Examiner for the city.

Sept. 22d, 1881, in consequence of the death of President Jas. A. Garfield, the Board recommended that the teachers hold appropriate memorial services on Friday afternoon, and the flags and buildings be draped in mourning, and the schools dismissed on Monday, and the bells be muffled and tolled for half an hour before, and half an hour after the meeting of citizens for memorial services.

May 16th, 1882, the Board instituted the Normal, or Training School, for the purpose of preparing teachers for work, and gave notice that no teacher would be employed who had not passed through the Normal class, but the fact of doing so, would not entitle anyone to any claim on the Board. The advantages gained were considered sufficient for the services rendered.

At this time it seems that neither reading nor penmanship were taught in any grade of the High School, and it was the opinion of some of the Board that these branches should be taught throughout the entire course.

On June 5th, the Board required that an additional teacher be employed in the High School, to put into execution the Normal, or Training school, and that this teacher, or a teacher of the High School, be required to teach reading and penmanship, and matters pertaining to the Normal class generally.

By order of the Board, Greek was dropped as a study in the High School.

July 2d, school was discontinued in the Jacksonville district, and the building offered for sale.

July 17th, Mr. D. W. Matlack's resignation as Principal of the North School, was offered and accepted.

On recommendation of the Superintendent, Appleton's and McGuffey's Charts were purchased for the primary schools.

Dr. E. Pearce, W. H. Mooney and Dr. H. W. Nelson were appointed to examine the sanitary condition of the school buildings.

August 7th, Dr. E. Pearce resigned, and Dr. B. H. Fisher was appointed to fill the vacancy.

At this meeting of the Board, Mr. A. M. Lyons was elected as Principal of the North Grammar School, at a salary of eleven hundred dollars.

Sept. 4th, 1882, the Clerk reported the condition of the finances:

Receipts from all sources.....	$44,612 10
Total expenditures.....	28,233 73
	<hr/>
Balance Sept. 1st,.....	$16,378 37
Special report of Library Fund:
Total receipts.....	$1,042 75
Total expenditures.....	799 80
	<hr/>
Balance.....	$ 242 95

Sept. 18th, Haven's Mental Philosophy was adopted for use in the Normal School, also the purchase of three copies of the National Encyclopedia, one for High School, and one each for the North and South Grammar schools, at a cost of $9.50 per copy.

About this time tenor drums were introduced in the schools for regulating the entrance and exit of pupils.

There was a Literary Society in the High School that flourished for some time, but on Dec. 2d the school buildings were closed against them.

January 15th, 1883, Mr. Rowe petitioned the Board for extra pay, for the additional work he had to perform. The Board allowed him $90.00 per year for teaching 45 minutes daily, over regular time.

April 26th, a joint meeting of the Board of this city, and the Board of Independent District No. 2, of Island Creek Township, was held, at which School District No. 5 relinquished its rights to certain property and families in the vicinity of Millvale. By so doing, District No. 2 could establish a school at or near that place. Maps of the same were drawn, one deposited with the Auditor, and the other with the Board, making the transfer of the following parcels of lands:

Wm. Speaker's Heirs.....	62	acres.
H. Paul.....	37½	"
J. Yocum's Heirs.....	40½	"
Wm. Speaker.....	7	"
Thos. Moreland.....	10	"

All of which having formerly been within our special District, and subject to taxation for school purposes.

May 7th, 1883, the High School Class A requested diplomas, instead of the certificates of graduation, heretofore issued by the Board, which was referred to a special committee that reported in favor of granting the request, and that the Board issue certificates to the graduates without the grade being marked on them, which was unanimously adopted.

May 21st, the necessity for providing new school buildings for the better accommodation of pupils in the near future, was freely discussed by the members of the Board, several reasons being assigned why the Board should not delay in taking the proper steps to have suitable buildings provided at an early day :

1st. The Sanitary Committee appointed to examine the school buildings, North and South, condemned the basement rooms of the same, as being unfit for school purposes.

2nd. And again because the location of the the Third Street and the Old Church school rooms were not as desirable as might be, on account of their proximity to the North and South buildings, and also on account of the structure and internal arrangement of the buildings themselves.

The crowded condition of the rooms and the ratio of increase of new pupils (as judging from the past) reminded the Board of the necessity of bringing the matter before the citizens, and asking them to authorize the building of two additional school houses for the accommodation and comfort of the children.

The Board appointed a committee consisting of Messrs. Maxwell, McCurdy and McLaughlin, to take the proper steps to submit the question to the people.

May 25th, the committee made an extended report on the situation of things in general, and estimated that the sites and buildings would cost about $25,000, and gave notice for a special election to be held on Saturday, the 9th day of June, 1883, at the office of B. M. Sharp on Fourth street.

At this time the election was held, with the following result: There were 636 votes cast; 564 votes for, and 72 votes against, making a majority in favor of the school houses, of 492.

July 2d, the Building Committee reported the site on the corner of Fifth street and Madison Avenue as a suitable location for school purposes.

The Board adopted their recommendation, and ordered them to contract with J. B. Salmon, the owner of the property, for the sum of $3,500.00.

The committee also recommended the property west of Jas. McDevitt's property on Adams street, between Adams and South streets, belonging to the Steubenville Coal and Mining Company, and they were authorized to purchase the same from Robert Sherrard, Jr., at a cost not to exceed $3,500.00.

July 16th, the plans and specifications for the new school houses were presented by Mr. George Fickes, and after several changes being made, the plans were adopted as amended, for the Madison Avenue school building, and bids were advertised for, according to the plans and specifications.

June 6th $12,500.00 of school bonds were sold to Sherrard & Mooney, they being the highest bidders.

August 20th, 1883, the two sites were paid for, and deeds procured and recorded.

The contract for building and completing the school house on Fifth street and Madison Avenue, was awarded to Robert Hyde, for the sum of $12,460.61, his being the lowest responsible bid.

The contract was to complete the building on or before June 1st, 1884. The building, grounds and furniture, complete, cost $19,343.88.

The Building Committee was instructed to make the necessary surveys of the property on Adams street, and procure plans and specifications for a new building to be erected on the same.

Sept. 3d, 1883, the survey of the grounds for the Second Ward school house, together with the plats as presented by J. M. Rickey, was accepted and filed.

The minimum time for the completion of the Normal and Training school course, was fixed at one year, but it was not intended that it should be limited, if they might be so situated as to attend two or more terms.

Oct. 9th, 1883, the Board contracted with Isaac D. Smead & Co., for their furnaces for the proposed Second ward school building.

The contract for erecting the Second ward school building was awarded to C. & J. M. Massey. The building and grounds and furniture, complete, cost $21,540.93.

During the flood of 1884 all the school books at the Rolling Mill school were destroyed. They were kindly replaced by a donation from Van Antwerp, Bragg & Co., of Cincinnati.

April 7th, on President J. S. Maxwell's retiring from the Board, he made a very pleasing and interesting address, reciting the many pleasant scenes that had passed, while a member of the Board, that would ever be held in grateful remembrance. Mr. Maxwell was an untiring member, and believed that whatever was worth doing at all, was worth doing well.

By the act of our Legislature in raising our grade from that of a City District of the Second class, to that of a City District of the First class, twelve members of the Board (instead of six for district of the Second class) had to be elected, and made no provision for the retention of members of the Board, who would have held over for one and two years.

The election having been held, the Board canvassed the returns with the following result:

1st ward,	W. R. Peters.....	2 years.
“ “	W. R. Elliott.....	1 year.
2d “	Jas. A. McCurdy.....	2 years.
“ “	Geo. A. Maxwell.....	1 year.
3d “	Dr. A. M. Blackburn.....	2 years.
“ “	John S. Maxwell.....	1 year.
4th “	John H. S. Trainer.....	2 years.
“ “	John F. Oliver.....	1 year.
5th “	Wm. D. McLaughlin.....	2 years.
“ “	John McClave.....	1 year.
6th “	A. R. McNeal.....	2 years.
“ “	Henry Ewing.....	1 year.

Certificates were issued for the newly elected Board, which met April 22d, 1884, and organized by electing Hon. J. H. S. Trainer, President, W. D. McLaughlin, Clerk and W. R. Peters, Treasurer.

The Committee on Rules and Regulations were John McClave, W. R. Elliott and J. F. Oliver, who reported rules for the government of the Board and schools, which were adopted, and were published in the yearly report of the Board.

May 19th, 1884, the Second ward and Fifth ward school buildings being about complete, it was necessary to elect Principals for the ensuing year. The following were elected:

The Colored school, having by a resolution of the Board, been abandoned, and no teachers to elect, the colored pupils were distributed among the other schools.

The Superintendent requested that specimens of work from the pupils in our schools, be exhibited at the National Teachers' Association, to be held from the 10th to the 18th of July following; the Board granted the request, and the specimens were sent.

June 16th, David W. Matlack was appointed a member of the City Board of Examiners for the term of three years.

The Third street school property was offered for sale, but failed to sell for want of bidders, and it was ordered to be sold at private sale.

The amount of funds asked for this year to carry on the school, was $33,526.00.

August 28th, 1884, the Board met in special session on account of the death of one of its members, Jas. A. McCurdy. Messrs. Oliver, Blackburn and Peters were appointed a committee to draft preamble and resolutions relative to the deceased. The committee reported the following :

WHEREAS, Jas. A. McCurdy, Esq., late a member of the Board of Education of the City of Steubenville, has been removed by death from our membership and association, be it

Resolved, That we tender to his bereaved wife and family, our most heartfelt sympathy and commiseration in this deplorable loss of a faithful husband and protecting father.

To the public, our sincere regret for the loss of an upright citizen, a wise and prudent officer.

To the Public Schools, to declare you have lost a patient, zealous guardian and friend, to whose prosperity and success, alike to teachers and pupils, he was ever ready to give his aid and counsel. Be it

Resolved, That we attend the last obsequies of our departed friend and fellow member, in our official body, bowing in humble submission to God, who giveth life and taketh it away.

The resolutions were caused to be engrossed on the records, and a copy sent to the wife and family.

As Mr. McCurdy was Chairman of the Committee on Teachers and Discipline, his duties often made it necessary for him to investigate difficulties between teachers and pupil, and the result of all his investigations and decisions were clear and comprehensive, so that it was an easy matter for the Board to determine the proper final action thereon.

The remarks of Mr. Maxwell and others upon the pleasant association with him as a member of the Board, and the genial social qualities that were ever present with him, were expressed with much feeling, and many regrets at losing his counsel and advice.

Sept. 1st, 1884, the Third street property, known as the McCracken Third Street Seminary, was sold at private sale to H. G. Garrett and J. Manley for the sum of $3000.00.

There being a vacancy in the Board, caused by the death of Mr. J. A. McCurdy, Esq., Mr. M. L. Miller was selected to fill the vacancy, until the election in April, 1885.

Nov. 3d, 1884, a communication was received from the New Orleans Cotton Exposition Commission, requesting that large sized photographs of our Public School buildings be taken, and sent to them for exhibition, which was received and adopted, and D. Filson & Son were employed to take the photographs at a cost not to exceed $30.00.

The Board granted the teachers of the Public Schools the privilege of attending the Eastern Ohio Teachers' Association, held on the 28th and 29th of November, without loss of pay.

Also a petition from the pupils of the High School that there be no school on the day before Thanksgiving, was granted without loss of pay to the teachers.

There was some apprehension as to the safety of the heating apparatus at the Second ward school building, and Messrs. Oliver and Peters were appointed to investigate the matter, which they did by taking out a brick on the top of the furnace, and inserting a thermometer, which proved that the highest degree of heat between the furnaces and joist was 76 degrees. From this test it was considered that there was no danger as to fire.

March 2d, 1885, the matter of attaching the territory in the City School District lying outside of the city limits, to the several wards in the city for school election purposes, was disposed of in the following manner:

That part of the territory lying west of the Fifth ward, to be attached to the Fifth ward; that portion lying west of the Third ward, to be attached to the Third ward; all that portion lying west of the Second ward, to be attached to the same, and that part of the territory lying south of the line running west with the line dividing the Second and Sixth wards, to be attached to the Sixth ward of this city.

March 16th, on recommendation of the Superintendent, mental arithmetic was adopted as a study in the High School, and after the present term it was to be used in the A and B Grammar schools.

April 20th, the new Board met, and organized by electing Dr. Blackburn President, and Wm. McLaughlin, Clerk.

H. N. Mertz was elected Superintendent, at a salary of $1750.00, and A. M. Rowe was elected Principal of the High School, at a salary of $1400.00.

Mr. Patterson was elected Principal of the Second ward school, at a salary of $750.00.

A. M. Lyons was elected Principal of the Fourth ward school, at a salary of $1000.00.

The salary of the Fifth ward school Principal was fixed at $750.00; Mr. E. W. Mathews was elected to fill the position.

Mr. W. H. Garrett was elected Principal of the Fisher's Run school, at a salary of $750.00.

Miss M. J. Leslie was elected Principal of the Rolling Mill school, at a salary of $750.00.

Aug. 10th, Dr. H. W. Nelson was appointed to fill the vacancy in the City Board of Examiners for a period of three years.

August 17th, Miss Carrie Wolcott was granted $50 additional salary per year, for conducting the music in the High School.

The scholarship tendered by the trustees of Adrian College, was authorized to be presented to Miss Sallie Holroyd, Valedictorian of the last graduating class.

April 8th, natural slate blackboards were introduced and put into some of the buildings, as being much superior to the painted boards.

April 19th, 1886, the Board convened, and newly elected members, Messrs. B. N. Lindsay, J. J. McCoy, A. M. Blackburn, D. Filson, A. R. McNeil and W. D. McLaughlin, took the oath of office, and organized by electing John McClave President, Wm. McLaughlin Clerk, and Geo. A. Maxwell, Treasurer.

May 3d, Mr. H. N. Mertz was elected Superintendent for the ensuing year, at a salary of $1750.00.

The following is a list of the Principals and teachers elected for the year, the grades to which they were assigned, and the salaries as fixed:

The commencement exercises of the High School were held at the Opera House on the 18th of June.

Oct. 18th, natural gas was introduced as fuel, into the First, Second and Fourth ward school buildings at a cost of $513.20, for gas and for fixtures.

Oct. 18th, 1886, the special committee on the communication from the Board of Health, examined the subject, and made the following report :

To the Hon. Board of Education:

GENTLEMEN—Your committee charged with ascertaining and determining the most efficient method whereby Scarlet Fever and Diphtheria may be prevented from spreading through the Public Schools, would respectfully report, that upon investigation, we find that the most reliable authors agree that the before mentioned diseases are contagious, being communicated through contact with the person affected, and likewise through the medium of clothing and other articles which have been in contact with, or in close proximity to the affected person. Accepting this as a fact, we would recommend that all children, and the families of children affected with either of these diseases, be rigidly excluded from the Public Schools, during the continuance of the disease; that all children who have been sick from the causes mentioned, shall be excluded from the schools until three weeks have elapsed, subsequent to convalescence, or four weeks from the outset of the disease; that all persons who have visited or attended families affected with either of the before mentioned diseases, or who have attended funerals of persons dying of the same, shall not be permitted to enter the schools for a period of two (2) weeks thereafter; that the members of all families wherein the diseases have existed, shall be excluded from the schools for a period of three weeks after the convalescence of the affected member, (or four weeks from the beginning of the attack) unless they furnish from the attending physician a certificate to the effect that they had not occupied any bedroom or apartments, or used any article of clothing worn by the one suffering from the disease, subsequent to its development.

We would further recommend that the City Council be requested to enact an ordinance, requiring heads of families to report cases of scarlet fever or diphtheria to the President and Secretary of the Board of Health, immediately upon learning the nature of the disorder, and that they (the Board of Health) cause a notice of the same to be posted upon the premises wherein such person resides; that the physician be required to furnish the proper certificate as above recommended, upon which convalescent children, and members of their families may be admitted to the Public Schools of this city.

Respectfully submitted,

J. J. MCCOY,

A. M. BLACKBURN,

D. FILSON.

Committee.

The substance of the above report was adopted as a rule of the Board, in relation to such matters.

Dec. 20th, the following rules on discipline were introduced by Mr. Oliver, and adopted:

“Any pupil who shall be guilty of the larceny of money, watches, jewelry, wearing apparel, or other personal property of another, in the school buildings of this city, shall be suspended or expelled, as the grade of the offense shall require.”

Any pupil who shall be guilty of using to, of or concerning any other person, language either of a vile, indecent, obscene, abusive or profane character, shall be suspended or expelled, as the character of the offense shall require.

Feb. 8th, 1887, a request was presented to the Board to grant the right of way for a street railway opposite the Fourth ward school building on North Fourth street. The request was granted, and the President and Clerk were authorized to sign for the Board.

Feb. 2nd, the Text Book Committee reported that they had purchased six McNulty's Maps for the use of the different schools, which was approved by the Board.

Feb. 21st, the Superintendent presented a written report, suggesting the future occupancy of the City Hall building for High School, office of the Superintendent, Board rooms and Library, which caused a committee to be appointed, consisting of Messrs. Maxwell, Filson and Oliver, to look after, select and report suitable rooms for Board and Library.

The committee on examining different locations, finally decided to recommend the west end of the Market House, which could be partitioned off, floored, and made into two good rooms, about 40x30 feet. They consulted with Council, and finally settled on taking 40 feet off the west end of the basement of the City building, the entire width, at a rental of one hundred and fifty dollars per year, for five years, the City furnishing the heat and janitor, the Board fitting the rooms up at their own expense. The work was awarded to Mr. Mulcahey. The rooms were fitted with book cases, cupboards and all that was necessary for the purpose intended, and the floors were covered with fine body Brussels carpet, which made it very inviting as a place for meeting of the Board.

April 18th, 1887, the new Board met and organized by electing Mr. J. F. Oliver President, and J. J. McCoy Clerk. The Board now consisted of the following persons :

FIRST WARD.

B. N. Lindsay, 1 year. Alf. Day, 2 years.

SECOND WARD.

J. J. McCoy, 1 year. Geo. A. Maxwell, 2 years.

THIRD WARD.

A. M. Blackburn, 1 year. W. H. Ferry, 2 years.

FOURTH WARD.

D. Filson, 1 year. J. F. Oliver, 2 years.

FIFTH WARD.

W. D. McLaughlin, 1 year. J. McClave, 2 years.

SIXTH WARD.

A. R. McNeal, 1 year. Eli Slec, 2 years.

To beautify the grounds of the Second ward school, 40 trees were purchased and planted in a proper manner, and the lot graded and grassed.

Mrs. Dr. Benjamin Tappan donated to the Public School Library, one hundred and fifty-one volumes of reports and executive documents, being a portion of Senator Tappan's library. They are books of reference, and are quite an accession to the Library.

August 22d, 1887, Mr. McLaughlin asked a revision of the course of study pursued in the High School.

Thereupon the Text Book Committee, in connection with the Superintendent, was directed to consider the matter, and after due consideration, they made the following report:

To the Board of Education:

GENTLEMEN—Your Committee on Text Books, to whom, with the Superintendent, was referred the matter of change of the High School course and text books, would respectfully report, recommending three courses, one of three years, and two of four years, one of the four years course to be known as the English, and the other as the Latin course, the plans for which are appended to this report, and form a part of the same, also that the Diplomas definitely specify the course taken, its duration and character. Pupils may take other studies than those laid down in the course they may be pursuing, with the consent of their parents, and by permission of the Superintendent, provided they are taught in the school and may not interfere with the regular studies of the course. We would also recommend a change of text book on Natural Philosophy, the one now in use being too heavy for the development of the pupils, and the time that can be given to the study, also the text book on Rhetoric for the same reason. For Natural Philosophy, would recommend "Steele's," and for Rhetoric, "David J. Hill's Elements of Rhetoric and Composition."

A. M. BLACKBURN,
W. D. McLAUGHLIN,
A. R. McNEAL.

Committee.

The question of non-resident pupils attending the Public Schools in our city, was discussed at length, and the following rates for tuition of non-resident pupils, were established:

Primary School, per month	$1 75
Grammar " "	2 75
High " "	3 75

Sept. 5th, 1887, Mrs. Romick was given permission to address the pupils of the High School and the Grammar Schools, on "Social Purity."

Sept. 19th, 1887, the report of the Text Book Committee recommended the purchase of two copies of Ridpath's Cyclopedia of Universal History, one for the North Grammar, and one for the South Grammar and High School, and that the Principals be responsible for the care of the books.

The committee also recommended the adoption of the Teachers' Handbook of Psychology, by Jas. Sully, as a text book for the use of the Normal class, to take the place of Haven's Mental Philosophy, the book heretofore used, which was unanimously adopted.

Rule Nine, of the Rules of the Board, was so amended as to read: "At the end of every month a report of the standing of each pupil for the month in each study he or she is pursuing, shall be sent to the parent or guardian of said pupil, who will sign and return it to the teacher."

In making out these reports, the standing of the pupil shall be determined from their written work, except the lesson is reading. Deportment to be marked apart from the studies, and to count the same as one study, no deduction from the standing in any study to be made on account of deportment.

Pupils are to be placed on the program of graduating exercises in alphabetical order.

As an experiment, there was a Street Fair held in the city on the 12th and 13th of October, and the Public Schools were closed to take part during the Fair.

Oct. 17th, Mr. Mertz, Superintendent, reported to the Board that the number of Normal Teachers would not be sufficient to supply the Training school—Primary Department—during the school year, and asked the Board to elect an assistant teacher to Miss Dungan, leaving but one room to be supplied by the Normal Teachers for remainder of the year, also that the supplementary readers were nearly all worn out, and asked the Board to make an appropriation of $100.00 to purchase new ones. The amount was allowed and Mr. Mertz was appointed to make the purchase.

Oct. 14th, 1887, the auditing committee reported the state of the finances of the Public Schools as follows:

Miss Day, ex-Librarian, asked for some old periodicals and shelfworn books from the School Library, for the use of the school at Mingo, and the Board granted her fifty books and fifty papers, and at the same time the Board donated 75 pieces, 25 books and 50 periodicals, to the Jefferson County Infirmary.

For the safety of the pupils the Board passed the following rule:

“No pupil of the schools shall be allowed to carry any pistol, revolver or other firearms, or any other dangerous weapon, at any time, in any school building, school yard or anywhere about the school premises. If any such firearms, or any dangerous weapon, is found on any pupil, it shall be taken by the teacher and given to the pupil’s parents or guardian, with the admonition that if the offense is repeated, the pupil will be expelled.” All teachers were notified to rigidly enforce this rule.

There being a vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. Raether, German teacher, and the Board being divided as to the propriety of electing a German teacher, there appeared before them a committee of German citizens, consisting of Mayor Opperman, Max Gescheider and Louis Schaefer, requesting that the Board elect a German Teacher at once. After hearing the remarks of the committee, there was a motion made to proceed to ballot for a German teacher, which motion was not carried.

Feb. 6th, the Board agreed to have the Superintendent and Clerk correspond for German teacher, and they received three applicants: Miss Adella Vaughn, Miss Minnie K. Newhard and Miss Annie F. Deibner.

The merits of the applicants being discussed, and inasmuch as Miss Vaughn could teach elocution, she was elected to teach German and Elocution.

March 5th, 1888, a communication from Supt. Mertz was read to the Board, stating that an effort was being made throughout the State, to celebrate in an appropriate manner, the 7th day of April, as being the One Hundredth Anniversary of the Settlement of Ohio and the Northwest Territory; that the State Committee had prepared a programme of exercises suitable to the occasion, which could be purchased at $5.00 per 1,000. He thought this an excellent opportunity to teach our children patriotism.

The Board authorized the purchase of the requisite number of programmes, and ordered the exercises to be on the afternoon of April 6th, as the 7th came on Saturday, and not a school day.

May 21st 1888, the schools, financially, were in a good and healthy condition, and the following speaks for itself:

The Superintendent submitted the report of Mr. A. M. Rowe, Principal of the High School, containing an abstract of grades of the scholars of the A Class, thirty-three in number, and recommended the Class for graduation.

On motion the Board granted Diplomas, and graduated the 33 members of Class A.

The Commencement Exercises of the High School were held at the Opera House on Thursday evening, June 14th.

Aug. 2d, 1888, Prof. A. M. Rowe, Principal of the High School, tendered his resignation, which was accepted by the Board, and the Clerk was ordered to give Professor Rowe the customary letter of recommendation.

There being a vacancy in the Principalship of the High School, the salary, $1,400.00, was reconsidered, and fixed at $1,200.00, and Mr. E. W. Mathews elected Principal, and I. F. Patterson, First Assistant.

The salary of the Second Assistant, fixed at $650.00, was reconsidered and fixed at $800.00, and Miss Annie N. Gilmore, elected.

The Principalship of the Second ward school being vacant, owing to Mr. Patterson being transferred to the High School, Mr. Frank H. Kendall was elected.

The enumerators returned the following number of youth of school age, 6 to 21 years, in the city:

Females, 2204; males, 2178; total, 4382. Number between 16 and 21 years, 1229.

August 20th, 1888, the Superintendent stated that the Science of Government would be taught this year, and a text book should be adopted. After some consideration, the Board adopted "The Government Class Book," by Andrew W. Young.

A communication was received by the Board from Miss Dora Cochran, stating that owing to ill health she would not be able to fill her position for some time, and asked that it be retained for her, which was unanimously granted, but death intervened, so that she was not able to take charge of her school again.

Sept. 17th, as a matter of further beautifying the grounds of the First and Fourth ward schools, the fences were removed and placed around the grounds of the Second ward school, as the grounds there needed protection from persons crossing and recrossing, the streets not being laid out regularly through that square.

The contract for printing the Annual Report was let to Sprague & Carnahan, at $1.22 per page.

The Text Book Committee reported the need of charts and other works in the schools, and recommended the following: Two Historical Charts, the adoption of the Eclectic German Reader; the Eclectic Guide to Health was adopted as a text book for use in the High School, and in the lower grades, physiology and hygiene to be taught orally.

Nov. 5th, the Superintendent called the attention of the Board to the holiday vacation, and asked that the custom of former years be so modified as to have a week's vacation about April 1st, owing to the great strain upon pupils by reason of the long unbroken period of school from January 1st to June 20th. The Board was favorable to such a change.

Nov. 5th, the death of Eli Tod Tappan was reported to the Board, and J. F. Oliver, Alfred Day and D. Filson were appointed to draft resolutions, setting forth the sense of the Board, who reported the following:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the all-wise Providence to remove from our midst, our friend and former co-worker in our Public Schools, Eli Tod Tappan, and

WHEREAS, He has filled with honor the position of teacher, member of the Board of Education, Clerk of the Board and Superintendent of our schools, and at the time of decease was filling the office of State Commissioner of Common Schools, therefore

Resolved, That we deeply mourn the loss of such an eminent scholar, and friend of education.

Resolved, That in him the educational interests of the State have lost one of the main props in our common school structure.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered upon the minutes, and that a copy of the same be forwarded to the family of deceased.

January 21st, 1889, the Superintendent suggested to the Board, that the teachers have permission to spend one day during the year, visiting schools of other places, and that they be allowed to go without loss of pay, and their places be filled from the Normal class, and that not more than three teachers be allowed to dismiss for the purpose on the same day. On motion of D. Filson, the teachers were allowed to visit other schools (two at a time) one day each year without loss of pay, their places to be filled as suggested by the Superintendent.

Mr. Filson urged the necessity of moving the A and B Grammar and High School classes from the 3d to the 1st floor of the building; that they were composed principally of young girls; that it was very injurious for them to climb so many stairs, and in fact some young girls had been kept from school on that account.

Feb. 4th, a communication was received from the State Board of Health, calling attention to the prevalence of small pox in various parts of the State, and requesting that vaccination of the school children, as provided by law, be attended to at once. It was ordered by the Board that all the children who had not been vaccinated within the past seven years, should be vaccinated, and report to the Superintendent within thirty days that the same had been done.

March 8th, 1889, the City Board of Official Building Examiners, who had been notified to examine the Fisher's Run School house, reported that the second floor was unsafe, and that the exits of the building were very dangerous in case of fire. The Text Book Committee recommended the adoption and purchase of six sets of Kellogg's Anatomical and Physiology Charts, which was adopted.

April 1st, a committee from the Junior Order of American Mechanics waited upon the Board, and said it was the custom of the Order to furnish suitable flags for use of the Public Schools, and in behalf of said Order, they tendered six flags, one suitable for each building, which the Board accepted, and on the 30th of April they were placed on the buildings with proper ceremonies.

May 20th, inasmuch as the City Building Committee reported the Fisher's Run school unsafe, the Building Committee of the Board of Education, recommended the erection of a new building, to be of the following dimensions, and built of brick, with stone foundation and trimmings; the building to have a front of sixty-six feet, and forty-six feet from front to rear, inside measure; to be two stories high, with four rooms, ceilings to be 14 feet high; first floor to be 28x28 feet in the clear, exclusive of the ward rooms; second story to be 33x28 feet in the clear; ward rooms six feet wide; basement eight feet in the clear, from the joist down.

To be in accordance with plans submitted by George Fickes; the building to cost, complete as per plans and specifications, about $8,000, without cost of heating and plumbing.

The Smead Heating, Ventilating and Dry Closet system was introduced into this building at a cost of $1,207.64 net.

May 20th, Messrs. Filson, Mooney and McClave were appointed a committee to inquire into the matter of the introduction of music in the Public Schools as a regular study.

The committee reported, recommending that music be taught in the Public Schools of this city; and that the National System of Music be introduced, to be taught as a branch of our educational system.

July 15th, bids for the erection of the new school building at Fisher's, were received and read as follows:

Geo. Fickes.....	$ 9,250 00
C. Massey.....	10,338 47
Frank Nicholson & Bro.....	9,086 60
Thos. Burke.....	9,087 50
Robert Hyde.....	9,341 67

The contract was awarded to Frank Nicholson & Bro., their bid being the lowest, $9,086 60, to be completed by the 1st of December, 1889, but it was not completed until the 12th of Feb., 1890.

In the course of the meeting of the Board on July 15th, Mr. Mooney submitted the following, which was received and adopted:

WHEREAS, There is now in session in this city a summer school of Methods of Teaching, and the corps of instructors contain some of the best known and most successful educators in the United States, and

WHEREAS, The times in which we live demand that the teachers, to whose hands the training of our children is committed, shall keep step in the line of march of educational progress: therefore,

Resolved, That we fully endorse the purpose for which this school was founded, viz: The improving of the schools of the Ohio Valley, by placing before the teachers who are progressive enough to embrace the opportunity, the best methods of instruction and management, and we especially commend the teachers of our city who are attending the school, and regret that any should fail to avail themselves of the advantages offered by the Ohio Valley Summer School of Methods.

The enumeration of youth between the ages of 6 and 21 years, also between 16 and 21 years, in the City of Steubenville, during the two weeks ending on the fourth Saturday of July, 1889, was as follows:

	Male	Female	Total	Between 16 and 21
1st ward	254	256	510	157

August 5th, 1889, the fixing of the salary of the German Teacher was again taken up, but the Board failed to agree.

The report of the special committee on music was referred to the Text Book Committee, to report August 19th.

Mr. Geo. J. Fickes was employed to superintend the building of the new school house at Fisher's, for which services he was allowed one hundred dollars.

August 19th, Messrs. A. G. Kaufman and B. F. Matthews were present at the meeting of the Board, and presented the following:

To the Hon. Board of Education:

GENTLEMEN—As a duly authorized committee of the Junior O. A. M., we desire to enter our protest against the teaching of German in our Public Schools.

Respectfully,

A. G. KAUFMAN,

B. F. MATTHEWS.

The protest called forth some discussion, after which it was, on motion of Mr. Matlack, received and placed on file.

The question of the salary of the German Teacher was again taken up, and the law governing the teaching of German in the Public Schools, read by Mr. McClave, after which the salary was fixed at $500.00.

Mr. H. H. McFadden being present, and as a citizen and taxpayer, and in behalf of the American people, American language and American sentiment, he protested against the employment of a German teacher for the ensuing year.

Mr. McFadden's protest was, by consent, received and filed.

Sept. 2d, 1889, the Text Book Committee reported the following:

Your committee, to which was referred the question of music, has made a careful examination of the subject, and unanimously recommend "The National System," as taught by L. W. Mason.

F. M. MOONEY,

D. W. MATLACK.

Committee.

The report was received and adopted.

A petition signed by Germans and others was presented to the Board for the appointment of a German teacher.

The Board then proceeded to elect a teacher of German, and Miss Vaughn was unanimously chosen to fill the position.

The election of a music teacher was postponed from time to time, and finally, Miss Emilie M. Barnett was elected; the compensation was fixed at $50.00 per month.

The expense of prolonging the schools for the year ending Sept. 1st, 1889, was:

Tuition.....	$26,072 59
Library.....	578 26
Contingent Expenses.....	7,400 90

COURSE OF STUDY.

The first reference to studies we find in the minutes of the meeting of the Board, held December 6th, 1839. It is as follows: "On motion of Mr. Beatty,

Resolved, That the Bible be introduced as a reading book in the free schools of this district.

Resolved, Further, that the Eclectic series of reading and spelling books be introduced, and also Kirkham's English Grammar."

No reference was made to any other studies, such as arithmetic, geography, history, etc.

In April, 1853, the Board adopted the following resolutions:

ORDERED, That the following shall be the text books used in the Common Schools in the City of Steubenville; and no others will be permitted therein.

INFANT SCHOOLS.

McGuffey's Primer and Speller.

PRIMARY SCHOOLS.

McGuffey's Speller and 1st, 2d and 3d Readers; Mitchell's Primary Geography, and Greenleaf's Mental Arithmetic.

GRAMMAR SCHOOLS.

McGuffey's Speller and 3d, 4th and 5th Readers, Pinneo's Grammar, Mitchell's Geography, Greenleaf's Arithmetics, Wilson's History of the United States, Robbins' Outline of History, Ray's Algebra, Gray's Natural Philosophy, Mills' Rhetoric, Hedge's Logic, Young's Science of Government, Root's Penmanship, and the scriptures, a portion of which is to be read by a teacher in each school room, every morning.

The schools at the same time were graded as follows :

1st. The school rooms in each school house shall be numbered, 1, 2, 3, 4.

2d. No. 1 shall be called the Infant School, and therein shall be taught the Alphabet, and spelling as far as two syllables.

3d. No. 2 shall be called the Primary School, and therein shall be taught Spelling, Reading, Primary Geography and Mental Arithmetic.

4th. No. 3 shall be called the Grammar School for Young Ladies, and therein shall be taught Reading, Penmanship, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography, History, and such other studies as the Board of Education shall from time to time direct.

5th. No. 4 shall be called the Grammar School for Boys, and therein shall be taught Reading, Penmanship, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography, History, and such other studies as the Board of Education shall from time to time direct.

July, 1854, the course of study was revised, and High School branches adopted as follows:

Sec. 1. The schools shall be divided with reference to the branches taught, into the following departments: Primary, Secondary, Grammar and High School, and, if necessary, each of these departments may be again divided with reference to the attainments of the pupils, into two or more divisions.

Sec. 2. In the Primary Schools shall be taught the Alphabet, Spelling, Reading in the Eclectic First Reader, Figures, Counting, Cardinal Points, etc.

Sec. 3. In the Secondary Schools shall be taught Orthography, Reading in the Eclectic Second and Third Readers, Punctuation, Primary Geography, Mental Arithmetic, the Multiplication table, the rudiments of Notation and Numeration, with exercises upon the blackboard and slates.

Sec. 4. In the Grammar Department shall be taught Orthography, reading in the Eclectic Fourth and Fifth Readers, Penmanship, Arithmetic, Geography with Maps, and English Grammar.

Sec. 5. The course of studies in the High School will embrace Ancient and Modern History, Algebra Natural Philosophy, Physiology Astronomy, Chemistry, Geology, Geometry, Trigonometry, Mensuration, Surveying, Book-keeping, Composition, Elocution, Mental, Moral and Political Science, and the Latin and Greek Languages.

Jan. 3d, 1856, the Board prescribed the following as the terms of admission to the High School:

To pass from the Grammar into the High School, they [pupils] must have so thoroughly studied, Orthography, Reading, Penmanship, Arithmetic, History of the United States, Primary Physiology and English

Grammar as to be able to sustain a satisfactory oral examination in all these branches; and, further, they must furnish correct written answers, prepared and in good business style, to 75 per cent, of forty-eight questions on each branch, except Arithmetic, and a like percentage of seventy-two questions on that.

Such pupils, IF POSSESSING A GOOD MORAL CHARACTER, shall be admitted to the High School, and, on completing the course, shall receive a diploma.

When it is charged that the Public Schools are adding studies at the top, it might be well to pause and compare the course of to-day with that of a generation and more ago. It will be seen that the changes that have been made, have been with a view to making the course more practical—to fit boys and girls for the affairs of life, and in no case has there been anything added in the way of collegiate studies, while much in that line has been dropped.

Here we append the course of study of 1889-90:

COURSE OF STUDY.

FIRST YEAR, OR D PRIMARY.

2d Div.—Lessons in reading, print and script, from chart and blackboard.

From 1838 to 1853, the Public Schools were entirely under the management of the Board. Since 1853 the Board has elected Managers and Superintendents, through whom the schools were managed by the Board.

List of Managers and Superintendents:

1853-54	Thos. F. McGrew, (acting manager.)
1854-56	Warren J. Sage,	Superintendent.
1856-58	Jacob N. D. Desselms	“
1858-59	Eli T. Tappan	“
1859-70	Joseph Buchanan	“
1870-79	Martin R. Andrews	“
1879-89	Henry N. Mertz	“

All the directors that served from 1838 to 1851, have passed away, except Thos. F. McGrew, now living in Springfield, Ohio. He is the only one left to tell the tale of former trials in so worthy a cause as our Public Schools. Since 1851, while there has been many deaths, the line of the members of the Board has not been broken, as each year has its representative still living.

The number of persons graduated at the High School from 1860 to 1889, was 505; 352 females and 153 males.

In 1860 there was but one graduate, Miss Oella Patterson. We can honestly say that the Graduates of the Steubenville Public Schools are second to none in the State, for proficiency in the branches taught.

As to the female graduate, we can refer you to the list of teachers through the different years, from 1860 to 1889, and you will find that a great many have held their positions for a number of years, which speaks volumes in their favor, and there are many others among us who have not had the opportunity as yet to show their skill as teachers. But there are many of them who have acquitted themselves as sales ladies, and in other branches of business, going to show that education is no detriment to either male or female who have to make their own way through the world, hence the Public Schools are a blessing to those who are thrown upon their own resources for support.

Of the boys who have graduated from the High School, many have won distinction in the various professions and branches of business. Steubenville High School boasts of graduates who stand high in the ministry, the law, as physicians, civil engineers, bankers, teachers, general business men and politicians.

Teachers of the Public Schools.
